Sam Granato is concerned America is going in the wrong direction and – like a car that's trying to get back on the road – keeps overcorrecting by making extreme lurches from left to right. It's time for a steady, moderate hand at the wheel that will take Utahns safely down the road and into a brighter future. Sam has the experience and integrity needed to do just that.

Sam is a native Utahn, a successful small business owner, and a dedicated public servant. Throughout his more than 20 years of public service, he has proven he can bring people together to find sensible solutions. Sam has been appointed by both Democrats and Republicans to help clean up government and solve important problems — and that is exactly the kind of leadership Utah needs during these tough times. It's time for us to stop lurching between political extremes and come together to build a brighter future for Utah.
